BEAR TRAP

1961

Volume XVI

Published by the Annual Staff

Elm City High School

Elm City, North Carolina

A black and white photograph of a lakeside scene. In the foreground, there are several large, dark tree trunks and branches, some of which are out of focus. The ground is covered with grass and small plants. In the middle ground, a calm body of water reflects the sky. In the background, a dense line of trees marks the far shore. The overall mood is serene and natural.

Foreword

All nature is but art, unknown to thee,
All chance, direction, which thou canst
not see;
All discord, harmony not understood;
All partial evil, universal good;
And spite of pride, in erring reason's spite
One truth is clear, whatever is, is right.

Alexander Pope

Farewell

As we pass slowly out of these doors that have seen so many come and go, all too quickly we hear the doors of the years past, quietly closing behind us;
and we go forth eagerly to open the doors to the future and whatever it may bring.

For when one door closes - another opens.

Laura,

*Well you are going to run us reminds out I guess. But I have really enjoyed being one of your school friends. You are one of the cutest, sweetest and most likable person I have ever met.
Also the best major bee we had in a long time. Keep up the smiling.
Lots of love to a real swell girl.*
